

CHARTER OF IMPERIALISM.

The present charter was drawn up in Washington during the slave trade, then discreetly negotiated at the Berlin conference in 1885 while the Western powers shared Africa, secretly renegotiated at Yalta when the world was divided into two blocs after the Second World War and during the creation of the "League of Nations", the forerunner of the United Nations.

A agreement.

I. GENERAL PROVISION.

Article 1°:

About our motto.

Motto of imperialism : To govern the world and control the wealth of the planet.

Our policy is to divide and conquer, dominate, exploit and plunder to fill our banks and make them the most powerful in the world.

Article 2° :

No Third World country is a sovereign and independent state.

Article 3° :

All power in the Third World countries emanates from us, and we exercise it by putting pressure on the leaders who are merely our puppets. No organ of the Third World can lay claim to exercise it.

Article 4° :

All Third World countries are divisible and their borders can be moved according to our will. Respect for territorial integrity does not exist for the Third World.

Article 5° :

All dictators must put their fortunes in our banks for the security of our interests. These fortunes will be used as donations and credits granted by us as assistance and development aid to Third World countries.

II. ABOUT THE POLITICAL REGIME.

Article 6°:

Any power and government established by us is legal, legitimate and democratic. But any other power or government that does not emanate from us is illegal, illegitimate and dictatorial, whatever its form and legitimacy.

Article 7° :

Any power which opposes the slightest resistance to our injunctions loses by the same token its legality, legitimacy and credibility. It must disappear.

III. ABOUT TREATIES AND AGREEMENTS.

Article 8° :

We do not negotiate agreements and contracts with Third World countries, we impose on them what we want and they are subject to our will.

Article 9° :

Any agreement with another country or a negotiation without our approval is null and void.

IV. ABOUT FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS.

Article 10° :

Where our interests are at stake, Third World countries have no rights; in the countries of the South, our interests come before the law and international law.

Article 11° :

Freedom of expression, freedom of association and human rights only make sense in countries where leaders oppose our will.

Article 12° :

The peoples of the Third World have no opinion or right, they are subject to our will and our law.

Article 13° :

The countries of the Third World have neither culture nor civilization without referring to Western civilization.

Article 14° :

One does not speak of genocide, massacre or "war crimes" or "crimes against humanity" in countries where our interests are guaranteed, even if the number of victims is very high.

V. ABOUT PUBLIC FINANCES.

Article 15° :

In Third World countries, no one has the right to put in their banks an amount above the ceiling of money set by us. When the fortune exceeds the ceiling, it is deposited in one of our banks so that the profits return in the form of loans or economic development assistance in cash or in kind.

Article 16° :

Only the countries whose leaders show total submission to us, our puppets and valets, will be entitled to the above-mentioned assistance.

Article 17° :

Our aid must be accompanied by strong recommendations of such nature as to prevent and break any action of development of the Third World countries.

VI. ABOUT MILITARY TREATIES.

Article 18° :

Our armies must always be stronger and more powerful than the armies of Third World countries. The limitation and prohibition of weapons of mass destruction does not concern us, but the others.

Article 19°:

Our armies must help each other and unite in the war against the army of a weak country in order to show our supremacy and be feared by Third World countries.

Article 20°:

The object of any military intervention is to protect our interests and those of our valets.

Article 21°:

Any operation to evacuate nationals of Western countries hides our real mission, that of protecting our interests and those of our valets.

VII. ABOUT INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENTS.

Article 22°:

The UN is our instrument, we must use it against our enemies and Third World countries to protect our interests.

Article 23° :

Our objective is to destabilize and destroy the regimes that are hostile to us and to settle our puppets under the protection of our military, under the cover of the mandates of the UN forces.

Article 24°:

UN resolutions are texts that give us the right and the means to strike, kill and destroy countries whose leaders and peoples refuse to submit to our injunctions under the cover of UN Security Council resolutions.

Article 25°:

Our duty is to keep Africa and other countries of the world in underdevelopment, misery, division, wars, chaos in order to dominate, exploit and plunder them through the "Missions" of " United Nations ".

Article 26° :

Our golden rule is the physical liquidation of the nationalist activists and leaders of the Third World.

Article 27°:

The laws, resolutions, courts and tribunals of the United Nations are our instruments of pressure against the leaders and activists of countries who defend the interests of their peoples.

Article 28° :

The leaders of the Western powers cannot be prosecuted, arrested or imprisoned by the UN courts and tribunals, even if they commit war crimes, genocide or crimes against humanity.

Source : Museum of Tervuren, otherwise known as the "Royal Museum for Central Africa".